

PATNA LAW COLLEGE

IQAC REPORT SUMMARY

IQAC of Patna Law College is an advisory and recommending body. It has formulated the action plan for all round development of the more than 100 years old College. IQAC meets regularly reviews the action taken on previously prepared development plans, assesses events & activities and provides suggestions to the administration for rectifying and improving upon areas where action taken is not satisfactory. The functioning of IQAC may be summaries on the basis of the functions:

1. Promotion of Ethical and Holistic grooming of Students

- Anti-plagiarism policy as per Patna University Guidelines.
- Courses on Ethics

2. Green Initiatives

- Solar Energy Installation for internet services
- Solid Waste Management
- Rain Water Harvesting
- Courses on Environment and Sustainability
- Environmental Laws
- Plantation
- Awareness Programmes

3. Swachta Abhiyan and Health Programme

- The Patna Law College has already notified every first Wednesday of the month for Swachta Abhiyan and carry Swachta in the presence of the higher authorities of the university. The Patna law college has recently carried out the same very diligently in presence of the vice chancellor and other authorities.
- Health Camp was organized in college.

3. Construction of two community toilet for ladies at Patna Law College.

4. Collaboration: MOU Signed for extension

The Patna Law College is having MOU with MATS university as well as with the Indo-European Education Foundation (IEEF) warsaw , Poland for extension as well as exchange of different activities.

5. Constituted the code of conduct for Teachers, Students and other Employees.

6. Awareness Programmes Conducted:

Anti –plagiarism awareness programme

In conclusion IQAC is actively involved in policy decisions, monitoring the activities and processes and implementation of Quality Policy adopted by the University in terms of its Vision and Mission.